ACHS levy up 9%, caused by wage hike

At the last regular meeting of the Board of Education of Antioch Community High School President Robert Lindblad delivered a plaque from the North Central Assn. indicating 50 years of the school's continuous membership in that organization.

Lindblad also read a letter of resignation from board member Tony Starcevic who has recently moved out of the district. Persons interested in filling the vacancy may contact the high school for further information prior to Dec. 3.

The board approved the 1984 levy in the total amount of $2,888,410 which represents a 9.97 percent increase over the previous year. The major increase was in the education fund, 80 percent of which is salaries of teachers, administration, etc.

In other business, the board approved Principal Arthur Blecke's request to organize a show choir for the spring of 1985 and a girl's soccer program for the spring of 1986.

The board also approved a policy for selling merchandise by retailers on school property which had been prepared by the principal and the athletic director.

Blecke showed the board a plaque representing the awarding of a first place rating to the Antioch Community High School yearbook "Sequoia" from the Columbia University Press Assn. in competition with other yearbooks throughout the United States.

Curriculum Director Gary Allen presented projected enrollment figures which indicated that the enrollment for Antioch Community High School for the 1985-86 school year would be approximately the same as the 1,700 enrollment for the current year.

Chamber asks donations to fund Santa's Castle

Antioch Mayor Ray Toft and Jim Fields, supervisor of Antioch Township, are donating the money and time to build "Santa's Enchanted Castle," which is now being put together and base painted for display and completion by the Nov. 24 parade date.

However, the Chamber has been informed that the cost for the decorations of the castle could approximately be $2,000, and would appreciate any donation for this project.

A junior at Antioch High School, Sam

Guanci, has already donated $200 for the castle's completion!

This castle will be something that will be used over and over again for several years to come. The Chamber feels that it is important that the entire retail group and anyone else who is interested put the best effort together as a team.

Those willing to help can send donations to the Antioch Chamber of Commerce, Retail Group, Larry Hanson, c/o BJ's Fashions for Men, 931 Main St., Antioch, Ill. 60002.

This panorama continues to a glorious climax and on to finish the painting! Try not miss this exciting, unique and cultural entertainment.

Board seat open at Antioch High School

The law specifies that the current Board shall appoint a replacement within 30 days, and said appointment shall be until the next election, which will be November, 1985.

Anyone who is interested in this appointment may pick up a brief questionnaire in the school district general office at 1133 Main St., Antioch. The questionnaire, together with a resume should be turned in to the same office by Monday, Dec. 3.

Candidates for membership on boards of education shall be: citizens of the United States, 18 years of age or over, residents of the State of Illinois and the school district for at least one year, and registered voters.

Make Thanksgiving service plans

A special Thanksgiving service is planned for the community Thursday, Nov. 22, by the local Christian Science congregation. A passage from Psalms provides the keynote: "Praise ye the Lord: for it is good to sing praises unto our God... He healthe the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds."

Exploring the importance of gratitude in daily life, the sermon on "THanksgiving" will include passages from the Scriptures and accompanying selection from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by the Founder of Christian Science, Mary Baker Eddy.

The Lesson readings emphasize that thanksgiving is far more than a passive postlude to blessings. As a passage from "Science and Health" asks: "Are we really grateful for the good already received? Then we shall avail ourselves of the blessings we have, and thus be fitted to receive more. Gratitude is much more than verbal expression of thanks. Action expresses more gratitude than speech."

During the hour-long service, the congregation will share hymns of praise, brief silent prayer, and the Lord's Prayer. The latter portion of the meeting has been set aside for spontaneous testimonies of gratitude to God.

All Christian Science services are open to the community, and families and neighbors are invited to attend this special annual gathering. It will begin at 11 a.m., at the Christian Science Church located at Rte. 173 and Harden St., Antioch.

Ask Dr. Sven

by Robert T. Sven B.S.D.D.S.

Professional Teeth Cleaning

Q. How often should teeth be professionally cleaned?

A. Cleaning frequently depends on the individual patient. Some are more susceptible to gum breakdown and periodontal problems than others. Or they smoke, or drink a lot of coffee or tea, habits which can stain teeth badly. And still other patients may simply be tartar builders, forming it more quickly than average. (This is particularly true of diabetics.)

How often your teeth should be cleaned can range from once a year if you're very good about your dental habits, to once every three months if you tend to be neglectful. Your dental history and plaque-control habits will help you and your dentist determine the frequency of cleanings.

The Time Machine

When I think about it

Thanksgiving 1984 is where it's at!

by GLORIA DAVIS

This Thursday families all over the U. S. A. will gather around dinningroom tables that have been set with the best linens and china and bow their heads in Thanksgiving for the blessings they have received since the last time they crossed wishbones together.

This is as it should be, but I wonder how many of us realize the advantages of taking part in Thanksgiving '84 versus being a member of the Alden family on that first Thanksgiving in the 1600's.

Dad didn't have to brave a long trek through the damp woods, not to mention the possibility of being scalped by Indians, to procure the traditional fine-feathered entree.

Instead a little scanning of the sale adds in the newspaper and a day's defrosting of the old butterball sufficeth.

The battle of a sale at the supermarket and the mild heart attack I chance when the bad news is broken to me at the cashier's counter is all the adventure I need.

And a dash of rum added to a filling of canned pumpkin, plus a prepared (better than I could make from scratch) pie shell and presto a gourmet pumpkin pie takes the place of planting, harvesting, mashing and baking the old orange gourd the way that the Pilgrims did.

For those a little lazier than I, Mrs. Smith or Chef Pierre can take care of that job even easier and quicker.

And doesn't simply setting the oven's timer (with a peek now and then) if you're not quite modern enough to zap the old bird in the microwave, beat the heck out of hours of standing over an outside spit basting and basting and basting...

Today Mom can undertake all this heavy labor clad in her most comfortable jeans or gowned in a wash and wear caftan if she is the glamorous type.

Pity poor Priscilla who toiled away smothered in her many petticoats and dreary, high-necked frock. According to the pictures she even had to wear that stupid hat while she slaved away.

And the whirr of the dishwasher sure beats the clatter of washing those greasy dishes in cold stream water.

Of course Thanksgiving '84 will still have an element of risk connected with it. Maybe we don't have to fear the reprisal of an Indian friend who gets dark meat instead of the white he asked for but it's probably just as dangerous to try and interrupt that big game that is bound to be blaring across the nation's TV sets.

These are just some of the minor reasons that should prompt "We thank Thee, O Lord, for these Thy gifts."

Being grateful for "The Big Four," health, wealth, love and happiness, are really what the true American holiday is all about.

If you have one out of four, God has been good! If you have more, there's even more reason to act like it's Thanksgiving every day of the year.

FIFTY YEARS AGO: Nov. 22, 1934

Mr. and Mrs. James McMillen were the parents of a bouncing baby girl.

John Turnock won two grand championships at the Future Farmers Sectional High School Fair. He was awarded the honor of having the best male and female birds in the poultry section.

The Keynoters' Club was sponsoring a Thanksgiving dance at St. Peters.

Mrs. Mary Smart and Mrs. J. B. Fields hostessed a bridge party for their friends Mrs. Frank Hunt, Mrs. Chase Webb and Mrs. Lester Osmond.

The Fidelity Lodge met at the home of Mrs. Emil Lubkeman.

Former pastors and members of the First Methodist Church of Antioch congregated at the Annual Harvest Home Dinner and Homecoming.

THIRTY YEARS AGO: Nov. 25, 1954

Antioch stores were sponsoring free bus rides for shoppers on Wednesdays. The stores were also running special sales on that day.

Over 1,200 children gathered at the Antioch Rescue Squad Building to greet Santa.

Antioch High School students Nancy Rentner, Donna Masopust and Marilyn Furlan were headed to New York and other points east, their trip sponsored by the Chicago Press Guild.

David Cain opened a service at the Methodist Church's Youth Rock River Conference.

Chester Galonka was installed as the new Scoutmaster of Troop 91.

Helen Luedtke was installed as Worthy Matron of the Antioch Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Penny Anderson entertained the rural postmasters of Kenosha County with her song renditions.

TEN YEARS AGO: Nov. 20, 1974

The Antioch Grade School Dist. was put on probation by the State of Illinois because of the lack of a vocal music program, the lack of an art program and the lack of local tax support by the people.

Rusty Miller won the 10-speed bike from the State Bank in the Cancer Society's Bike-A-Thon.

Eugene Zannini and Robert Barnes, Jr. won bikes that were second and third prize.

The Town Crier, a column in the News, said that "we believe that E. 'Chick' LaMagdeleine will be an excellent sheriff for Lake County."

Joe Sterbenz of the Antioch Bowl presented checks to Bernie Gutowski from the Antioch Fire Dept. and Little League and Jim Koppa from the Antioch Rescue Squad, the proceeds of the "Beat the Champions" contest at the bowling alley.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Word is that Geraldine Ferraro's recent election stint is contagious. I hear that there may be a female in the running for the Antioch mayor's office in the spring election.

Parks Director Glenda Tomaschik and her two children Crisini and Ryan had quite an escort when they visited grandmother in Page, Nebraska this year.

Dave Heath, Jim and Mike Fields, Syd and Jim Parker, Paul Eckhart, Fred Popp, Phil Vos and Pete Tomaschik all went along to do a little hunting on her parent's farm.

They got 26 pheasants and two quail, one duck and Jim Fields brought down a coyote which he left for Glenda's sister for the bounty.

Sincere condolences to the parents and family of Antioch High senior Gina Allen, who was killed in a automobile accident. Her teachers and friends will sorely miss one of the school's leading seniors. She was the editor of the prize winning Antioch Tom-Tom, the school paper.

Kids start thinking about your Christmas list. Address your letter to 100 Toyland Rd., Antioch, and you'll get a letter back from Santa if you make sure you put a return address on it.

Ooops! It was Barb Spillner that was honored by the Illinois-Jaycee Women not Kathleen Kennedy as previously reported in the News.

And speaking of Santa this will be the first time in a long time that Santa will not arrive on the Friday after Thanksgiving, Nov. 23, when the village tree lighting takes place at the village hall.

Santa will arrive on Saturday, Nov. 24, as he rides in the Antioch Christmas Parade sponsored by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce.

Old Annie Mae can't wait for that one. I hear that many of the organizations and businesses are busy working on floats for the parade.

A Happy Birthday to Cathy Haley, the Rush's offspring, Lori Jo and Dick Harland who all seem to be Scorpios.

Santa's Castle which is really taking shape near the water tower is looking great thanks to the carpentry efforts of "Doc" Friemoth and the artistry of Vince George, not to mention our erstwhile Mayor Ray Toft.

It rains in Belgium about 300 days per year.

Height could mean title

Sequoits walking tall, may be threat in '84-'85

The Antioch Community High School varsity basketball team is set to open its cage season when they it takes on the Barrington Broncoes on Wednesday, Nov. 21, at Barrington.

After finishing fifth in the North Suburban Conference last year with a 8-10 record, the Sequoit cagers may be relying on their new found height to improve their standing in the '84-85 cage season.

Dave Hart, 6'5" senior, and Joen Keim, 6'1" senior are the returning lettermen and Sequoit Coach Don Zeman will probably be relying on Keim's outside shooting ability.

Antioch might just have one of its tallest teams in recent years. Along with Hart there will be three tall juniors on the Sequoit squad, Dave Grindley, 6'6", Don Gunther, 6'5" and Matt Weber, 6'4".

Zeman plans to use the man to man defense as a strong part of this year's strategy along with this new added height advantage.

One of Zeman's goals this year will be to correct one of last season's big mistakes when the Sequoits got off to a slow start by losing six out of their first eight games.

"We have to be able to get off to a good start this year and remain in contention for the conference title," Zeman said.

Zeman expects Zion-Benton and Libertyville to be the strongest teams in the conference this year and the teams to beat.

The fact that there will be eight seniors on this year's Sequoit team also adds to Zeman's optimistic outlook. He will be depending on the leadership of Tony Grebauer, forward, Brad Poultier and Chris Zeien, guards, and forward, Lonnie Grote.

Zeman also has big plans for injured seniors Jeff Johnson and Bill Kaht when they are able to take to the floor.

"A man's growth is seen in the successive choirs of his friends."

— Ralph Waldo Emerson

Teachers fete Churchill

Illinois Education Assn. (IEA) President Reg Weaver congratulated Robert Churchill on his victory in House District 62.

"This dedicated candidate deserved to win this election," Weaver said. "Representative Churchill worked long, hard hours to convince the voters of the need to elect legislators who are committed to the real needs of Illinois, especially our public schools. He is honest, concerned and dedicated to the goal of educational excellence."

Churchill won the endorsement of the state's largest organization of public school employees on the basis of a strong pro-education voting record in his first term in the Illinois Senate.

"The IEA endorsement is no small matter," Weaver said. "Our members take their endorsements seriously. When the teachers in a senate or house district get together to work as a solid force behind an endorsed candidate, the opposition is in trouble."

The teachers stuffed envelopes, passed out leaflets, manned telephone banks and did other general campaign work for Churchill.

"Representative Churchill's victory was especially rewarding since we've been involved with his campaign since his first primary election over two years ago," said Sue Gerasch-Schmitt, an Antioch teacher. "We're happy to be part of sending him back to the legislature."

"Public education will be a key issue in next year's legislative session, IEA endorsed senators and representatives understand the issues and know the answers. We are proud of the part we played in the election process, and proud of all the candidates we helped elect," she added.

Average residential space-heating costs for 100 therms of gas per month as of September, 1984, including state and local taxes. Figures below for areas other than NI-Gas are taken from U.S. Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics (New York figure includes northeastern New Jersey).

THE BOTTOM LINE ON WHAT YOU PAY FOR GAS.

Like many of our customers, you probably wish your monthly gas bill were lower than it is.

But we thought you might find some consolation, in looking at how much your natural gas costs compared to the alternatives.

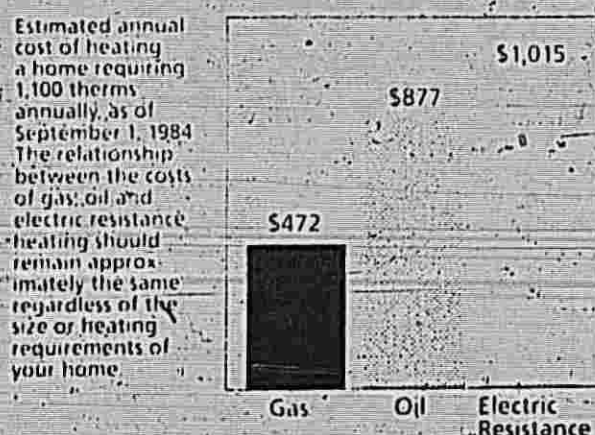

First, take a look at the cost of natural gas provided by Northern Illinois Gas, compared to gas costs elsewhere in the U.S. As the numbers plainly show, the gas we supply you is among the lowest priced in the entire U.S., even compared to costs in areas where gas is produced.

Then look at the comparative costs of natural gas vs. oil and electricity. You can easily see, gas comes out way ahead. And current forecasts indicate that gas will continue to hold its competitive edge in the years to come.

In this day and age, everything seems to cost more. And gas is no exception.

But the real issue is, how much does it cost here, compared to elsewhere, and compared to the alternatives.

On both counts, we hope you'll agree, the gas you get from Northern Illinois Gas comes out looking pretty good when you get to the bottom line.
